Through inadvertence, the name of Isaac Riddell was omitted from the list of entertainers at the clean anniversary. Piper Riddell furnished considerable music during the evening for a grand march and reel and also for dancing and it is mainly through his efforts that a pipe and drum band has been organized in Barre.

Mrs. W. D. Reid of South Main street is in receipt of an interesting descriptive letter from her nephew, Maj. Fred Moody, formerly of Toronto, Ont., who is an officer in a Canadian regiment overseas. The letter was written in the trenches soon after the memorable battle of Vimy ridge, in which the Canadian battalions distinguished themselves. Before the war Maj. Moody was an occasional visitor in the Reid home here.

Among the guests arriving at Hotel Barre through the week end were the following people: Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Staffleban of Troy, N. Y., Edward B. Jewell and H. W. Hargis of Windsor, W. E. Gilroy of Cambridge, S. M. Fells of Cleveland, O., R. E. Blow and J. E. Brown of Windsor, George Williams of Portland, Me., L. Mazzolini and son of Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Preparations for the allied Red Cross concert, to be given in the Barre opera house Tuesday evening, are now completed and a large crowd is anticipated. A splendid program is to be submitted and all the entertainers are confident of giving a good account of themselves. The Barre pipe and drum band will give a selection Monday evening and will march from the postoffice to Depot square and thence to City park. The male members of the concert committee will accompany them and tickets may be had for either the concert or the dance. The ladies of the sewing club for the allies are working most willingly to make this concert a success and have arranged for a refreshment booth to be operated during the dance. The following women will do their share of the work: Mrs. James Scott, president pro-tem; Mrs. James Rhind, secretary; Mrs. Margaret Stephens, treasurer; Mrs. George Patterson, Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mrs. W. W. Russell, Mrs. James Reid, Mrs. Nellie Bianchi, Mrs. Alex Hanton, Mrs. Isabella Thomson, Mrs. John Watt, Mrs. J. C. Morrison, who has done much for the cause and who was formerly president. Harry Levin, who has been passing a 24-hour furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myer S. Levin of Merchant street, returned last night to Fort Ethan Allen, where he was assigned to C company, after passing the physical examination Friday. At the present time C company has been recruited almost wholly from Barre, making two companies to be furnished the National Guard by this city.

Sunday baseball at Intercity park had for its principals the Italian A. C. and a team representing the National Acme Machine Co. of Windsor, the Italians winning by the score of 9 to 3. It was a game more evenly contested than the score indicates and a large crowd was left in doubt as to the result until the later innings were reached. "Jum" Laird did the twirling for the Barre outfit, with Brave Fowlie at the receiving end, while Peterson pitched for Windsor and Dominic Weaver, a brother of Pitcher Joe Weaver, caught. An error by Bowers cost the visitors three runs in the fifth inning and in the same mix-up Brown, who is credited with winning Saturday's game from Goddard, lashed out a flurry that netted three runs. Jack Clark connected for a home-run drive in the eighth inning. The Windsor team is rated as one of the best amateur clubs in the state and barring a few bad turns it lived up to its reputation.

Green Mountain Boy

is an individual that should interest all requiring the services of a stallion. His sire was Quebec Prince, the well-known Canada stallion; his dam was one of the best brood mares that was ever shipped from the West. He is one of the best, if not the best, all-around young stallions in the state. This class of a horse is always in demand. He will stand Mondays at the stable of Dr. Dow, West Topsham; Thursdays at the stable of Percy Heath, Chelsea, after June 1st.

Terms, $10.00 to warrant. You should see this stallion before making further arrangements. For information, address
